

During the Spring Festival it is important to pay a New Year's call.

On the first day of the lunar calendar, people always pay a New Year's call.

First, people pay a New Year's call to their grandpa, grandma, father and mother to wish them good health.

Then people pay a New Year's call to their relatives and neighbors.

The elders always give children some money in a red envelope as a New Year's gift.

The Chinese people all enjoy celebrating the New Year.
